

Proclamation of The North American Empire

All Hail Emperor Bieber I

- Democracy is reborn in allegiance. Salute your valiant young Emperor. Hail Bieber!

Your Imperial Program is these seven principles:

1. Free mobility and civil rights for visitors, workers, merchants, and investors throughout your Empire.
2. Rational policies for security, agriculture, commerce, and medicine.
3. Seven Official Languages: English Español Maya Nahuatl Inuit Navajo Français
4. Open collaboration in transportation, communication, and lunar utilization.
5. Sensible management of natural resources for benefit of all current and future residents, in coordination with regional authorities.
6. Harmony with neighbors in South America, The Carribean, and neighboring islands such as Hawaii and Bermuda.
7. A great affection and cordial respect for the people of the other hemisphere. We trade freely with them, and we have no obligation or right to control their resources or governments.

His Immediate Orders:

- Unnecessary military resources and unused economic capacity shall both be redirected towards 1) civic progress and 2) utilization of The Moon using his beloved antrobots.
- Hemp and Cannabis shall be traded, taxed and regulated sensibly throughout the continent.
- The warring cartels in Mexico shall be reformed into peaceful labor unions and political parties, with past members subject to speedy criminal prosecution for violent offenses, and amnesty for trafficking offenses.
- An ordinary salaried working week shall be defined as 35 hours, with additional hours at overtime pay.
- California shall be split into two provinces: northern and southern.

Long Live The Emperor. Hail Bieber!
